

About the SME Finance Forum

The SME Finance Forum (SMEFF) was established in 2012 by the G20 and is managed by the IFC. Our objective is to scale SME finance for job creation and economic growth. As the leading SME finance network globally, we steer industry innovations, support replication of best practices and foster global knowledge transfer. We also power our global peer learning membership network by connecting them with relevant partners, investors and policymakers. Members are serviced through a team of dedicated relationship managers.

Our Members

Examples from our Members Network

Who should become a member of the forum?

Membership would be most valuable to institutions and industry stakeholders striving to support SME businesses. These include banks, non-bank finance institutions, fintechs with SME focused solutions, credit guarantee institutions, development finance institutions, SME related networks and real-sector firms supporting SME finance.

How do we join?
